Dear Sir:-

In response to your recent letter of inquiry as to payment for the second copy of "Coins and Their Values" ordered several months ago, I beg to advise that I ordered this copy in my name for Mr. Wayte Raymond, who informs me that he is going to send you a draft immediately for it. There has been some misunderstanding as to whether he should pay me or settle with you directly, and this is the cause of the delay.

Regretting that the remittance has not been sent more promptly, I am,

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
